

The resources below are ones we recommend for further study. All of the resources below would align with the historic teaching of the Christian church regarding sexuality, marriage, and gender.

Some resources might walk out pastoral care in ways that are different from one another. We, as a church, believe it is healthy to wrestle with these pastoral approaches so that we can be faithful to scripture in a way that bears the fruit of the Spirit and love of our neighbor as commanded by Jesus.
